ONE WALES,
ONE YEAR TO GO

The One Wales Agreement between Labour and Plaid Cymru faces unprecedented challenges - a new First Minister and Cabinet, severe financial pressures, a referendum on increased powers and the parliamentary election.

What are the prospects for the last year of the coalition? Will the many One Wales commitments weather the financial pressures? How might relationships with Westminster develop?

Marking the first 100 days of the new First Minister, and with contributions from leading politicians and commentators, this is an essential event.

Why you should attend

The One Wales Agreement between Labour and Plaid Cymru faces unprecedented challenges - a new First Minister and Cabinet, severe financial pressures, a referendum on increased powers and the parliamentary election.

This Conference is a unique preview by two independent organisations of the last year of One Wales. Marking the first 100 days of the new First Minister's role, this event brings together leading politicians, key policy players and informed commentators for a dialogue on the current and future state of One Wales. It's a day that anyone involved in making, influencing or examining policy and politics in Wales can't afford to miss.

CONFERENCE FEES (PER DELEGATE)

Statutory bodies & Private sector	£149
Bevan Foundation Members	£99
Voluntary / community groups
